of Lincoln county, is a candidate for re-nomination for Congress from the Eighth district, subject to the action of the democratic party.

THE BOARD OF CONTROL.

There are bills before both Houses of the Legislature to abolish the bi-partisan Board of Control, the members of which are supposed to see after the eleemosynary institutions of the State. We are not fully informed as to the necessity of the change, but as far as advised we are for the passage of the bills. The bi-partisan business is generally a humbug, by which both parties escape the responsibility of the results, though in the case of the Board of Control the republicans should be charged with the responsibility. The two republican members, we are informed, dominate the board, the two democrats being merely figure heads, who are afraid to exercise much authority as their tenure of office is in the hands of the governor, who is supposed to back, and as a matter of fact, does back the republican members.

The scandal at the Feeble Minded Institute is a strong argument against the bi-partisan feature. One party or the other ought to be responsible to the people for it, and yet neither has been so held by them generally.

A lecherous old creature, whose only claim to republican favor was that he had renounced democracy and become a turncoat, was appointed superintendent of the Feeble Minded Institute, many of whose inmates being so devoid of mind that they would starve to death at a table of food if they were not fed. Taking advantage of the condition of one of the female inmates, this fiend in human form detained her at his will and when the sin could no longer be hidden, he was permitted to escape the wrath to come by flight and is still at large, it now being claimed for him that he is crazy and in one of the South American republics. So far we have observed no effort on the part of the Legislature to investigate this most horrible of scandals, to the end that those who connived at the escape of the brute or tacitly permitted it shall be exposed and punished. It is hoped that such a resolution will be introduced at once and the whole nasty business be threshed out. If poor unfortunate girls are to be the victims of such brutes, then it were a thousand times better that they should be permitted to die from hunger and neglect.

OUR old friend, J. A. Craft, collector at Louisville, has had to walk the plank and Samuel J. Roberts, of the Lexington Leader, collector in the seventh district, will soon have to do so. Ludlow F. Petty, of Shelbyville, gets Mr. Craft's job and Fields, of Ashland, will step into Roberts' shoes. Democrats generally will not regret Mr. Craft's ousting, as he was a democrat until a dozen years ago, and republicans say that Roberts, who has been "onto the job" for 12 years, has hogged enough persimmons for one man.

THE revolting exposures in the Atlanta city prison by the investigating committee are enough to make one's blood run cold to think that men made in the image of their Maker could be so heartless and cruel. Men and women were beaten unmercifully, hung up by the thumbs until unconscious and subjected to other as inhuman punishments, while filth and vermin filled the prison. The persons guilty of such atrocities should have been shot. A travesty of justice let them off with $150 fines.

THURSDAY last 193 bills were introduced in the Legislature. With a great number of laws on our statute books, who would have thought we needed that many more? However, their introduction will doubtless be the last of most of the bills, many of which were introduced solely to please some constituent.

THE largest valentine factory in the country, which was situated at Worcester, Mass., was destroyed by fire, with $200,000 worth of stock. If this means that we won't get our usual comic remembrance, we would have said "let her go Gallagher," if we had seen the fire start.

A CHICAGO author got gay and wrote a novel entitled "My Wife's Gone to the Country." It was apparently such a true recital of his own devilry in her absence that she brought suit for divorce immediately on her return. It won't do to tell too many things even in a novel.

SENATOR R. L. HUBBLE has introduced a bill making men of 60 ineligible for jury service. To us young fellows this looks like it is all wrong. A man of 60 isn't generally fit for anything else but to serve on juries and do other light jobs.

CONGRESS has only been in session about a month and yet Mr. Taft has fired three messages at it. The one Friday was devoted to the necessity of a conservation of our natural resources which have sadly been neglected.

HON. W. F. KLAIR, of Lexington, has introduced a bill to take from the governor the right to name revenue agents. The law providing for them ought to be repealed. It simply legalizes blackmail and permits a lot of corner-men to feather their nests, both at the expense of the victim and the State, a compromise being effected as a general thing, with the so-called agents pocketing nearly all of the money, those cited preferring to do so to the publicity and expense of a trial.

For sublimity of gall commend us to the sugar trust. It plead the statute of limitation as a bar to punishment for proven frauds and while in the act of paying back money it had stolen, has the audacity to enter a public disclaimer of any wrong doing on the part of its responsible managers. Did you ever?

A BILL to repeal the dog tax is before the General Assembly. And now if somebody will introduce a bill prohibiting the raising of sheep in Kentucky, we may be happy yet.

POLITICAL.

The straight democratic ticket, headed by former Mayor S. G. Helekel, was elected at Knoxville.

The urgent deficiency appropriation bill will be reported to the House. It carries approximately $5,000,000.

In the absence of George H. Wilson, Speaker, the House was called to order Friday by our own Hon. William H. Shanks.

The New Mexico and Arizona Statehood bill was completed by the House Committee on Territories and was ordered reported.

The House voted to recommit the resolution providing for a change of date for Presidential inaugurations. This is a temporary defeat for the project.

Frank Moore, who represents Fulton and Hickman counties in the Legislature, draws $100.80 mileage and J. T. Buford, who represents Franklin, draws 30c.

Gov. Willson is in Washington to attend the conference of Governors and declares that he will have nothing to do with the fight for republican offices in this State.

M. H. Thatcher, Kentucky's State Inspector and Examiner, will be United States District Attorney at Louisville if it is possible for Senator Bradley to give him the place.

On account of the absence of Governor Willson in Washington, Lieut. Governor Cox will act as governor until his return and Senator Conn Linn will preside over the Senate.

A tentative agreement has been reached to appropriate $60,000,000 for the completion of the Ohio River improvements to be expended in sums of $5,000,000 a year for 12 years.

It is reported at Frankfort that South Trimble will be a candidate for Congress to succeed Campbell Cantrill. W. P. Kimball, of Lexington, will also be a candidate for the nomination.

Representatives C. J. Diekema, of Michigan, has announced himself as a candidate for Speaker of the House, to succeed Speaker Cannon when the Sixty-second Congress is organized.

In handing out offices carrying salaries aggregating $200,000 a year Mayor Gaynor, of New York, has appointed only one Tammany man. Murphy has paid the Mayor many visits, but they have brought forth no patronage results.

Champ Clark, the minority leader of the House, returned to Washington after ten days of speech making in Missouri and the Middle West, and spread cheering predictions of sweeping democratic victory in the Congressional election this fall.

Among the unique bills likely to be presented in the House one day next week is one establishing the whipping post in Kentucky. This bill is to be introduced by Robert L. Harris, Representative from the Eighth and Ninth wards, Louisville.

Representatives Raney, of Illinois, and James, of Kentucky, were selected as nominees for the democratic representatives on the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation committee. The selection was made at a caucus of democratic representatives who were in session for two hours.

Representative John Dwight, of New York, the republican "whip" of the House, says that an agreement has been reached between the regulars and the insurgents, whereby the latter will attend the republican caucus on selection of the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation committee and will abide thereby.

Following an informal canvass of the House Committee on Banking and Currency, Representative Hammond, of Minnesota, has framed a bill to allow National banks to loan not to exceed 50 per cent. of their savings deposits on improved farm lands, under regulations to be prescribed by the Controller of the Currency.

Provided a joint resolution introduced in the House by J. W. Holland, of Shelbyville, and adopted, is concurred in by the Senate, a thorough investigation of the office of P. P. Johnson, Adjutant General of Kentucky, will be made. The resolution further provides for an investigation as to the condition, management and control of the State penitentiaries and houses of reform and charitable institutions of the State.

ON Monday, Jan. 3, when Neal Silvers took charge of the Somerset jail there were nine prisoners in it. By Saturday, the 8th, the number had increased to 36. Saloons evidently don't agree with the people of the "free State of Pulaski." They had been open three of the six days.

THE Court of Appeals has decided that violators of the local option law may be put under peace bonds after two convictions. The court construes the law to mean that the two convictions must be had, one after the other, and not together. Our officers of the law should bear this decision in mind.

WE will be compelled to stop the papers of those who are behind with their subscriptions if they do not make immediate remittances. Of course we don't need the money but Uncle Sam has decreed that semi-weekly publications can not use the mails when those who are supposed to pay for them are more than nine months behind, and we do not care to pay the penalty for breaking the postal laws.

AT the meeting of the city council Thursday night, concrete pavements were ordered on Main street from Severance & Son's corner to Lizzie Salter's house and from the Lincoln County National Bank corner to Mrs. W. G. Welch's corner. J. Welch Rochester was elected treasurer. An arrangement was made with Grimes G. Beazley for a place in his livery stable for a portion of the fire apparatus and he is to furnish a horse to pull the machinery to fires.

IT looks very much like the Legislature is disposed to rub it in on tax payers. They have created 15 to 20 new offices at $5 a day each, which to the average citizen, will seem unnecessary. For instance, our townsman, Mr. Joel T. Embry, who is head doorkeeper of the House, has been given three assistants when all of us know that Joe is both able and capable to do the job himself, which at best is not a very onerous one. While they are at it the members ought to put on Congressional airs and vote themselves private secretaries, as everything seems to go.

THERE is now pending in the Legislature a bill making it illegal to take a drink of intoxicating liquor on a common carrier. We hope it will pass both Houses and that the emergency clause will be affixed.

MR. HENRY JAMES, of the East End, showed us the other day a salt cellar made of rock that had been in his family for more than 100 years. It is a relic of Indian days and Mr. James would not part with it for a good deal.

PAYNE.—Fred Payne, aged 85, died at his home in the East End of a complication of troubles, Saturday. He is survived by his wife, who was a Mrs. White, and several children. The remains were taken to Palmer, Ill., for interment.

TO TAXPAYERS LINCOLN COUNTY.—I will have to advertise and sell your property after Jan. 1 if your tax is not paid in order to make my final settlement with the State and county. Settle up and save this expense. T. J. Hill, sheriff.

IN sending money for the I. J. for another year, our old friend, Mr. William Dodds, of Downs, Ill., writes: "Give my best regards to my many friends in Lincoln, especially 'Uncle Dink' Farmer. Tell him I have been for him ever since the war and am mighty glad he is Lincoln county's jailer."

BARGAINS IN LAND.—We have three small tracts of unimproved land for sale at a bargain—one tract of 21 acres, another of 18 acres, another of 13 acres. All well located, lie well and good land. Can give possession at once. Will sell one tract or all. Terms to suit purchaser. Apply to Hughes & Swinebroad, Lancaster, Ky.

THE jury in the case of the Commonwealth vs. the lad, Samuel Underwood, charged with stabbing Capt. C. S. Ashby, the L. & N. conductor at Junction City, last October, gave the defendant a fine of $50. Judge Saufley remitted the fine and Patrick Zimmerman made up money and paid the boy's way to Louisville, where he has relatives.—Advocate. To us this looks like too good treatment for a fellow who wantonly stabbed a gentleman in the back. The next rascal who uses his knife in Boyle will likely be awarded a chromo.

STORE AND POSTOFFICE ROBBER.—Postmaster and Merchant Napier, of Rowland, awoke Sunday morning to find his safe blown open and $100.80 in cash and a lot of checks gone. A portion of the money belonged to the government. Entrance was effected by breaking the glass in the front door and nitro-glycerine was used to crack the safe. A bottle bearing the inscription, "Nitro Glycerine" was found in the store-room. Lair's blood hounds were phoned for and were immediately put on the trail, but they did not locate the guilty party. The safe-breaking was a bunglesome job and was evidently done by a novice. Nobody in Rowland heard the explosion.

This is fine pneumonia weather.

THREE suites of rooms in the Odd Fellows' building for rent. Apply to Ed Wilkinson.

TOM EVANS, son of Henry Evans, colored, of this place, was shot to death in Covington but we did not learn particulars of the trouble. The body was brought here and interred yesterday afternoon.

"My Dixie Girl Co." played three nights to rather small crowds at Walton's Opera House last week. The company is far above the average and deserved a much more liberal patronage. Miss Pearl Evans Lewis is an exceptionally good actress and a sweet singer.

NEWS comes from Lexington that thieves entered the home of Mr. W. P. Walton and got away with his overcoat and hat. As the average newspaper man possesses not more than one each of such articles, we fear our brother suffered not only inconvenience by the thief's visit, but some cold as well.

REV. O. M. HUEY, pastor of the Baptist church at Somerset, preached to the inmates of the jail in his city on Sunday afternoon. Our pastors might do some good missionary work by emulating Rev. Huey's example. We are sure that "Uncle Dink" would be glad to open the jail door to the men of God at any and all times.

The retirement of Col. W. P. Walton from active service as a newspaper editor and publisher, owing to the suspension of the Evening Gazette, of Lexington, will be the cause of sincere regret to the members of the Kentucky press, with whom he has so long lived and labored. A democrat of the democrats, a stalwart champion, an uncompromising antagonist, Mr. Walton, was, at all times, an ally to be sought, an enemy to be feared.

He carries into his well-earned retirement the assurance, not only of a genuine respect, but the heartiest of personal good will from all who have measured swords with him or drawn them in the same cause, for he's a first-class fightin' man and the best of good fellows.—Louisville Times.
